

The Time is Now

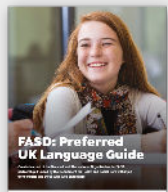

Looking for a way forward for local services after the new NICE Quality Standard on FASD?

This report features best practice from across the UK based on input from more than 60 practitioners, policy makers, experts & people with lived experience

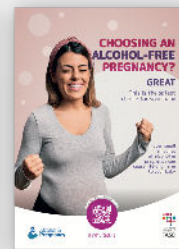

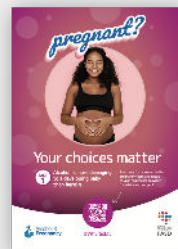

You have a patient with FASD or suspected FASD - are you up to date with the latest developments?

Best Practice in FASD Training

FASD: Preferred UK Language

New expert-reviewed posters & leaflets

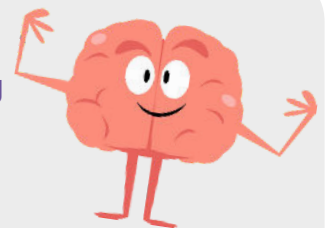

Check out our dedicated GPs and healthcare professionals page for more info.

Trainings

People with FASD have a right to understand their diagnosis. New resources created for and with young people with FASD and experts under a DHSC grant are now available: www.fasd.me

Website & toolkit

Calm cards

Misunderstood game

Break it Down Board

Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorder affects 2-4% of the population

Find out more www.nationalfasd.org.uk